Brief overview of Mines Saint-Étienne

Mines Saint-Étienne is one of the most selective technological university in France, with its graduate engineering programmes regularly ranked among the top 15 of French engineering courses.

Rankings and Awards

Among the top 600 universities in the world in the prestigious THE (Times Higher Education) 2023 World University Ranking, and 201-240 in the prestigious QS World Rankings by subject. At national level, ranked 10th best School of Engineering. In 2018, we obtained the “Cequent” Certificate for Quality in Internationalisation and in 2019, the Bienvenue en France quality label.

History

Mines Saint-Étienne was founded in 1816 to meet the needs of the French mining industry for elite executive staff. Although still associated to the “Mines” label, symbol of excellence for nearly two centuries, École des Mines de Saint-Étienne now offers a broad range of engineering disciplines and research programmes. It’s engineering education combines broad theoretical knowledge with hands-on projects, development of management and communication skills through mandatory international exposure and practical training in partner companies. Small-group teaching and close educational supervision are essential features of all science and engineering programmes.
